Deputy Managing Director
Pagendarm BTT GmbH*

Hamburg, Germany, 19 April, 2010 – Pagendarm BTT GmbH, a leading manufacturer of coating, drying and moisturizing technology to the paper, film and foil converting industry, has appointed a new Deputy Managing Director.

On February 1st, Mr. Dirk Dzelnitzki took over the management of Pagendarm BTT GmbH, replacing Dr. Wennemer as interim Managing Director.

Mr. Dzelnitzki graduated as Diplom-Ingenieur from Rostock University with a degree in mechanical engineering and ship technology. In his many years of activity in the industrial specialized machinery sector, he held positions in the fields of development, from process technology and product launches right up to customer advisory services and has a proven track record as an industrial production specialist. In the past 10 years, he was in charge of the development division, including the production of prototypes and manufacturing equipment, of a medium-sized company where he was responsible for the introduction of new products and direct relationship management services for key large-scale accounts and OEM customers.

In Mr. Dzelnitzki we managed to recruit a manager with strategic thinking skills for our company. Due to his technical expertise, combined with his management experience, he meets all the necessary criteria to further develop Pagendarm BTT GmbH as a member of the Polytype Converting Group. His vast experience, not only in construction but also in the fields of market positioning and strategic partnerships with customers and suppliers is extremely valuable in this regard.

In addition, we successfully recruited reinforcements for Pagendarm BTT GmbH's sales team. Mr. Stefan Drewes joined our company on March 1st.
